James W. McCulloch
66. ^{vs}
The State of Maryland &
John James, as well for the State as for himself

This cause came on to be heard on the Transcript of the Record of the Court of Appeals of the State of Maryland, and was argued by Counsel on consideration thereof. It is the opinion of this Court, that the act of the Legislature of Maryland entitled "An act to impose a tax on all Banks or Branches thereof in the State of Maryland not chartered by the Legislature" is contrary to the Constitution of the United States and void, and therefore that the said Court of Appeals of the State of Maryland and in affirming the Judgment of the Baltimore County Court in which Judgment was rendered against James W. McCulloch but that the said Court of Appeals of Maryland ought to have reversed the said Judgment of the said Baltimore County Court and to have given Judgment for the said Appellant McCulloch. - It is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the said Judgment of the said Court of Appeals of the State of Maryland in this case be and the same is hereby reversed and annulled, and this Court proceeding to render such Judgment as the said Court of Appeals should have rendered; It is further adjudged and ordered, that the Judgment of the said Baltimore County Court be reversed and annulled, and that Judgment be entered in the said Baltimore County Court for the said James W. McCulloch. -
